"WANTS OF THE COLORED PEOPLE."-Prof. Alfred M. Green, a spruce, straw-colored lec-turer from Philadelphia, instructed the colored population of the Seventh Ward in the Zion Wesley Church, on C street, Island, last evening on the above subject. He said that as the public mind was at this time agitated with the question, "What shall colored people should look into it and see what they most wanted. In proportion as great measures are investigated so is society prepared to act upon them. He argued that education was the great and immediate want of the colored people. In arguing this he referred to the advantages which education possessed over ignorance in all ages of the world. Education gnorance in all ages of the world. Education redeemed America from barbarism to civiliza-tion, and what had made the American must make the negro. Slavery was the great incubus which had been hanging over this country, and it had stood in the way of the progress of American civilization. This curse was now, however, to be blotted out, and leave civiliza-tion to exert its proper influences. It was want of education that kept the negroes socially so much below the dominant race, and education alone could throw down the barrier.

One reason why the colored people had op-posed education was because they saw that its effects upon some whites were to make them levote whole years to prove that negroes be-onged to the ourang outang species, and were not to be recognized in the universal brother-tood of man. For this reason the colored race code of man. For this reason the colored race coked to education as a something which fully leveloped all the depravity of man's nature. But this should not be in future, and the negroes aust remember that in proportion as they are ducated will they be influential. All ages and developed the truth that education was the me thing needful to influence. Education will end to knock down the barrier of prejudice wraised between the races.

If any necessity ever shall exist for the blacks between the Faces, that necessity will be caused by the determined ignorance of the blocked race; and this ignorance will increase be obstinacy of the white man, in his refusal

In reference to the President's scheme of emi-ration, the speaker said that Mr. Liucoln had old the colored delegation who called upon im, that they must consider this question of mancipation, not only as concerning them-lives immediately, but as to its effects in all oming time, and upon posterity. This was all ery well; and this Administration was no published best the negro had ever had; but lould they not think of the question in the lew that if the scheme failed, the investment ould be a sad one to those who went into it! ould be a sad one to those who went into it! vance. That is the decree of nature. The ea of a purely-negre government cannot be

A false theory in reference to emigration had stained, and that too even among the free clored people of the North, who held that the intrabands, or those just released from slavery, ould be compelled to emigrate. This was a ery wrong and unjust idea; and it was wrong the free colored people of the North to thus knowledge the right of the Government to at the responsibility of caring for the contrahey had prayed long for the day of jubilee, e day when all should be free, and now that at freedom had come the free colored people ted to shirk their duty and not care for their tore unfortunate brethren. He referred to the padition of the contrabands in this neighborood, and said it was a shame they were not

The speaker believed that the Southern States ere destined to be occupied by the negro aves, who, as freemen, but under the tutorhip of the Government, would cultivate the pil. The Government required this, because hey required the revenue which came from hese States, and only black labor could culti-tate them. The free colored people should renain in the North.

The speaker, in conclusion, held that one reat thing which retarded the progress and dvancement of the negro, was the jealousies omented and kept ablaze by the whites, by naking invidious comparisons between the egroes of this and other countries. The negro ome one people in thought and feeling, if they could achieve any good.

THIRD-WARD STATION CASES .- Before Justice Thompson .- On Monday night, Temperance Hall was again desecrated, not only by the sale of liquors, but by a riot, in which, we are sorry to say, some of the Metropolitan Police are charged with participating. A ball was given, and Sergeant Skippon notified a manager—Mr. R. Rainey—that liquor must not be sold; and he so promised. In the course of the evening a barkeeper began to sell liquor, and soon a riot began. Patrolman Lusby went to quell the disturbance, when he was assaulted and re-M. B. Gorman, another M. P., aided him in the resistance. Michael McNemara and James Fitzgerald participated in the riot. The two were not in uniform, but when the riot was getting serious they declared their of-ficial character. Justice Thompson held Monahan to bail for court, in $500, to answer the charge of assault and battery and resisting the officer. The other three were held in $300 each to answer the charge of riot.

A warrant was issued against James Ragan, who was responsible for the sale of the liquor. Sergeant Skippon declared his intention to report the officers to the Superintendent; and, also, the officer who had charge of the door, who failed to assist in quelling the riot.

SUSPICION OF STEALING .- A day or two since a colored man named Thomas Delcher traded a cow and calf with a woman named Stark, receiving $5 "boot," but not taking away her cow, and giving a confused story as how he obtained the animal, Sergeant Milstead arrest. ed him and took him before Justice Furguson, by whom he was committed for a further hearing.
